

Tip of the Month CABIN AIR FILTERS

Cabin air filters are designed to capture airborne contaminants such as soot, dirt, pollen, and other pollutants, that enter a vehicle cabin through its heating, air conditioning and defrosting (HVAC) system. Cabin air filters also prevent leaves, dirt, bugs, rodents and other debris from entering your car. Have you had your cabin air filter changed lately?

The Importance of Preventative Maintenance

Preventive maintenance is a schedule of planned maintenance actions aimed at the prevention of breakdowns and failures. The primary goal of preventive maintenance is to prevent the failure of equipment before it actually occurs. It is designed to preserve and enhance equipment reliability by replacing worn components before they fail. Preventive maintenance activities include equipment checks, partial or complete overhauls at specified periods, oil changes, lubrication and so on. The ideal preventive maintenance program would prevent all breakdowns.

Example of Vehicle Maintenance Check List

Every 5,000 kms

- Change oil and filter
- Check all fluids
- Check tire pressure
- Check all belts and hoses
- Lubricate Chassis

Every 15,000 kms

- Change oil and filter
- Replace all filters (air, fuel, cabin air)
- Lubricate chassis
- Check brakes / wheel bearings
- Check all belts
- Check temperature of engine thermostat
- Inspect cooling system & fluid for cleanliness
- Check for leaks

Could you put check marks in all the boxes?

"Highlift Auto is an awesome business. Their newsletters are interesting..and full of great facts. My son enjoys reading the newsletters and has a special place for them...he asks if we are doing something for the car from that newsletter. He is 11 years old and learns a lot from them."
- Alice Pryor

Welcome to June! Summer is coming to Carleton County, although you wouldn't know it by looking out the window today. With the warmer months comes vacation and camping. Do you tow a trailer? Have you had your transmission fluid and filter changed recently? Have you recently bought a new camper or traded vehicles? We sell and install trailer hitch and towing accessories. Do the kids get bored on long road trips, we sell and install overhead DVD players to keep them entertained. For all your summer vehicle needs keep us in mind.
